Consumer Information Annual Summary

This document contains the Consumer Information Summary Listing and the Required Notice to Students Concerning Penalties for Drug Violations

Consumer Information Summary Listing

Santa Fe University of Art and Design provides consumer information to prospective and current students as follows:

Institutional and Financial Aid Information

Santa Fe University of Art and Design Catalog contains information about the university to include:

- Academic calendar
- Academic programs
- Access to student loan history on National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS)
- Approvals and accreditations and procedure to review approval and accreditation documents
- Estimated costs for books and supplies, room and board, transportation, and miscellaneous expenses
- Facilities
- Faculty and instructional personnel
- Financial aid policies and procedures for students and their families
- Financial aid programs, term, conditions, application instructions, distribution, and delivery
- Satisfactory academic progress requirements
- Services for students with disabilities
- Student financial aid rights and responsibilities
- Student services
- Study abroad and financial aid eligibility
- Transfer of credit policies
- Tuition and fees
- Withdrawal and refund policies

Navigation to the Santa Fe University of Art and Design Catalog is on the Programs of Study overview page at www.santafeuniversity.edu. Prospective or current students may request a hard copy of the catalog from the Admissions Office at admissions@santafeuniversity.edu or at 1-505-473-6133 or toll-free at 1-800-456-2673.

Additional information about faculty and staff and the Financial Aid Office contact are available on the Santa Fe University of Art and Design website at www.santafeuniversity.edu. Current plans for improvements to academic programs and any current articulation agreements are described at the following link: Consumer Information Data

Additional information about federal student loans is provided during required loan entrance and exit counseling. Applicants are directed to the U.S. Department of Education loan entrance website at: www.StudentLoans.gov.
Student Outcomes and Student Characteristics

Each year, Santa Fe University of Art and Design makes available information about graduation/completion rates as required by the Student Right to Know Act. The completion/graduation rates for the group of first-time, full-time fall start students who began in 2003 is as follows: bachelor's degrees, 43%.

Additional information on student program completion by race/ethnicity and by receipt of certain types of financial aid is available on the university's website at Consumer Information Data.

- Information on the university’s student retention rates is available at Consumer Information Data.
- Information on graduate job placement rates and job titles is available at Consumer Information Data.
- Information on graduate and professional education pursued by Santa Fe University of Art and Design bachelor's degree graduates is available at Consumer Information Data.
- Information on student body diversity is available at Consumer Information Data.

Student Rights under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) gives students specific rights with regard to the review, confidentiality, and release of personally identifiable information. Please see the complete Santa Fe University of Art and Design FERPA policy statement in the Academic Records section of the university catalog (website location listed above) or contact the Office of the Registrar at 1-505-473-6322 for a hard copy.

Jeanne Cleary Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Crime Statistics Act

The Santa Fe University of Art and Design publishes the Annual Security Report by Oct. 1 of each year. This report includes campus security-related institutional policies, including those on alcohol and drug use, crime prevention, the reporting of crimes, sexual assault, and other matters. The report also includes statistics for the previous three years on federally prescribed reportable crimes. The link to download a copy is located on the Campus Life page at www.santafeuniversity.edu.

Americans with Disabilities Act

The Santa Fe University of Art and Design follows the guidelines of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and provides reasonable accommodations to individuals who provide appropriate documentation of disabilities. If you are interested in applying to the Santa Fe University of Art and Design, and require accommodation during the admissions process, an enrollment advisor will be happy to facilitate your ability to speak with the university's disability officer to discuss your specific needs. For more information, see the Santa Fe University of Art and Design's ADA policy by navigating to the Student Services page and then to Disability Services. For information regarding services, accommodations, academic adjustments, and modifications on the basis of disability, please contact Emily Powell, Academic Resource Center coordinator, at 1-505-473-6570 or via e-mail at epowell@santafeuniversity.edu. All inquiries will be confidential.

Vaccination Policy
Students planning to attend classes at the Santa Fe University of Art and Design must submit a Required Student Immunization Form completed by the student's primary care physician to the university health center. Students must either document receipt of the meningococcal vaccine or certify they have read about and understand the risks of not receiving the vaccine and waive the requirement.

Copyright Infringement and Illegal Downloads

Unauthorized distribution of copyrighted material may subject students to civil and criminal liabilities as well as institutional sanctions. The university policy for copyright infringement and illegal downloads is available on the "Legal Information" link at the bottom of the university website at www.santafeuniversity.edu. Hard copies of the policy are available in the Student Handbook and may be requested from the Student Life Office.

Voter Registration

The National Mail Voter Registration Form is the one document that allows you to register to vote from anywhere in the United States. For the form and additional information, visit http://www.eac.gov/voter_resources/register_to_vote.aspx.

Required Notice to Students Concerning Penalties for Drug Violations

Santa Fe University of Art and Design must provide each student written notice advising of the penalties for drug violations under The Higher Education Act (Title IV, Section 484(r)). Suspension of eligibility applies only for offenses that occur while the student is enrolled in the university and receiving Title IV federal financial aid. The suspension applies only to federal aid and all other aid is subject to policies of the university or other fund source. Suspension of eligibility applies only for offenses that occur while the student is enrolled in the university and receiving Title IV federal financial aid. The suspension applies only to federal aid and all other aid is subject to policies of the university or other fund source.

Section 484(r) SUSPENSION OF ELIGIBILITY FOR DRUG-RELATED OFFENSES—

(1) IN GENERAL.—A student who has been convicted of any offense under any Federal or State law involving the possession or sale of a controlled substance shall not be eligible to receive any grant, loan, or work assistance under this title during the period beginning on the date of such conviction and ending after the interval specified in the following table:

If convicted of an offense involving:

The possession of a controlled substance: Ineligibility period is:

must provide each student written notice advising of the penalties for drug violations under The Higher Education Act (Title IV, Section 484(r)). Suspension of eligibility applies only for offenses that occur while the student is enrolled in the university and receiving Title IV federal financial aid. The suspension applies only to federal aid and all other aid is subject to policies of the university or other fund source.

First offense ..................................... 1 year

Second offense .................................. 2 years
The sale of a controlled substance: Ineligibility period is:

First offense ................................... 2 years

Second offense .................................. Indefinite

REGAINING ELIGIBILITY—A student may regain eligibility for federal financial aid after the required period of time has elapsed since the conviction, or if the conviction is reversed or set aside, or if the student can certify completion of a qualified drug rehabilitation program.

A qualified drug rehabilitation program must include at least two unannounced drug tests and must also satisfy at least one of the following requirements:

• Be qualified to receive funds either directly or indirectly from a federal, state, or local government program.
• Be qualified to receive payment either directly or indirectly from a federally or state-licensed insurance program.
• Be administered or recognized by a federal, state, or local government agency or court.
• Be administered or recognized by a federally or state-licensed hospital, health clinic, or medical doctor.